

Fun for the Whole Family, All Day...

John Nation

Bluegrass band New Horizon caps a full day of entertainment with a concert at 8:30 pm.

Entertainment Schedule

11:00 am - Celebration begins! Antique cars on display until 5 pm. Arts & crafts fair until 8 pm.

* Noon - The Music Makers - will Bill McIntyre on keyboard and Marvin Coulter on guitar, playing a variety of music, including old favorites in gospel, country, sing-alongs and boogies

Noon - Louisville Historical League videos - "Crescent Hill: Water, Rails & Fairs"; "The 1937 Flood: Hell & High Water"; "Fontaine Ferry: Louisville's Magic Kingdom" (repeated on the hour until 6 pm in Peterson-Dumesnil House)

* 1 pm - Marie Augustine - presenting a sampling of a variety of tunes, including sing-alongs, big band, country, folk and contemporary originals

* 2 pm - "Jim Porter's Louisville" - actor Gregory Acker portraying 6'21" Jim Porter, who lived in Louisville in the early 1800's and witnessed much of our history

* 3 pm - Magic & Juggling by Will - talented Will Chatham returns to the Old Fashioned Fourth of July with a new and improved show

4 pm - Children's Games - old fashioned fun, staged on the lawn by Metro Parks

* 4 pm - Frazier's Dukimer Doings - a three generational family playing traditional dulcimer music on a lap dulcimer, a hammered dulcimer and a guitar

* 5 pm - Russian Folk Singer Misha Feigin

* 6 pm - Bob Rosenthal's Folk & Country Show - featuring American folk and country songs.

* 7 pm - A Musical Salute to Rodgers & Hammerstein - with entertainers Gary Tipton & Keila Webb-Lally presenting songs, dances and comedies from everybody's favorite musicals - "Oklahoma", "Carousel", "The King & I", "Flower Drum Song" and "The Sound of Music"

8:30 - 10:30 pm - New Horizon - progressive bluegrass music

10:30 pm - FIREWORKS!!!

*Mayor's Summer Scene "Shows-to-Go"

